WHAT TO BRING

What should I bring to camp?

A key to a successful camp experience for your camper is to make sure that they come prepared. Check our list below to help ensure that your camper remembers everything they will need for camp.

- casual wear for game time (NOTE: no bare shoulders or belly's: shorts must be halfway to knees in length: no clothing with pictures or words that convey violence, foul language, alcohol, tobacco, drugs, etc.)
- rain wear
- tennis shoes
- extra shoes you don't mind getting wet or dirty
- jacket
- sweatshirt
- rodeo wear (boots, hat, long sleeved shirt, jeans, and other necessary clothing)
- sleeping bag/pillow
- sleeping pad
- personal items (towel, soap, toothbrush, etc.)
- Bible
- small notebook
- pen/pencil
- books for free time
- bug spray
- sunscreen
- flashlight
- Medication (NOTE: All medications MUST be checked in with the camp nurse at registration)
- ALL NECESSARY HORSE GEAR!
- HORSE FEED, if you bring a horse
- stall fee - $7.50 per horse

Be sure your campers take home all that they brought with them to camp. We suggest you mark all of their items ahead of time. We also suggest you check the sleeping areas, arena, and stall areas before leaving.

What not to bring to camp?

No personal valuables should be brought to camp! SEIRBC will not be responsible for lost or stolen items. DO NOT bring knives, tobacco products, illegal drugs, cards, TV, radio, ipods, video games, cell phones (this will be strictly enforced), or other electronic devices to camp (NOTE: A cell phone will be provided if there is an emergency). NO dogs, stud horses, or mares with colts!

Is there a dress code?

In order to promote a positive environment at camp, SEIRBC requires that all campers adhere to the following guidelines while attending camp. All clothing worn by campers should be modest and in good taste. In some cases, we may ask campers who are wearing questionably immodest clothing (i.e. short shorts, tight or see-through clothing, cropped shirts, excessively low-riding jeans, etc.) to change. Please be sure your camper packs appropriately.
